Snyder's Apiaries 4747 Norrisville Rd White Hall, MD 21161 Phone: (410) 329-6671 Email: SnydersApiaries@zoominternet.net Website: https://www.snydersapiaries.com/	We are a family owned beekeeping operation, located in White Hall Maryland, that started out in 1980 with 3 hives of honey bees purchased at a farm auction. We have since added many more hives and added the sale of beekeeping supplies, package bees, queens, candles and many other bee related items. The extraction and bottling operation features minimal handling to maintain high quality standards. The honey is only heated enough to pump and strain, not to the temperatures commonly used in the processing of supermarket honey. The result is a full-bodied taste, preserving all of the God-given and healthful properties of nature's oldest sweetener.

Pristine Valley Farms 2814 Old Joppa Rd. Joppa, MD 21085 Phone: 410-679-9235 POC: Rose Website: https://www.pristinevalleyfarms.com/	We are two small family farms in Harford County Maryland consisting of two apiaries, Old Joppa and Winters Run. Mike is the primary beekeeper with having kept them in Baltimore City, Baltimore County and now Harford County for the past 26 years and Rose, the sister and assistant, having bees for about 10 years. We've shared our surplus honey with family and friends but our interest in bees has allowed us to expand our apiary size thus providing us the opportunity to sell honey, nucs, queens and wooden-ware. Our honey is raw. We strain it to remove bits of honey comb wax, but it still contains original pollen. We do not heat or filter our honey. Several pieces of our beekeeping equipment is created by us. All work is done here on the farm. We're not here just to sell you bee equipment, we want you to succeed. We are members of both the Susquehanna Beekeepers Association and the Maryland State Beekeepers Association.
